PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release, July 25, 2008

Volunteers of America of Kentucky welcomes Dr. Paul Ransdell. Paul has been a fundraising professional for over 22 years. His experience in the areas of annual giving, alumni relations, major gifts, grant writing, and planned giving is built upon a solid record of success.

He holds degrees from Vanderbilt University, Spalding University, and Georgetown College.

Paul is a member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals, a past member of CASE-KY, and has served in leadership positions for Kiwanis and several Chambers of Commerce.

His Professional Training includes CASE Division III, The Fundraising School at Indiana University, Philanthropy Summit at University of Richmond, Institute for Charitable Giving, Rapport Leadership International, and National Executive Institute.

He has served in a variety of staff, volunteer, and consultant capacities for several Kentucky-based nonprofit organizations.

About Volunteers of America of Kentucky

Volunteers of America of Kentucky creates positive change in the lives of individuals and communities through a ministry of service. Founded in 1896, Volunteers of America is one of the largest and most diversified not-for profit, faith-based, human service agencies in the Commonwealth and serves the most vulnerable citizens in Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia and Clark and Floyd counties in Southern Indiana. Last year, more than 14,000 people received services. Program services offered by Volunteers of America include housing and homeless services including eviction prevention, HIV/AIDS education, prevention and case management, substance abuse treatment, senior housing, youth services, veterans' services, incarceration/reentry services, and services to individuals with mental retardation and developmental disabilities.
